

4/40/68 8:15 a.m. Bill martin just finished a phone call from new Orleans, reading me tonight's story that Carlos Bringuier had file a million dollar suit against Sage, Dell and me over Whitewash. The three points her read from the sound word for word like the old papers thrown out of court. Bill said they each of the things I was said to have said Bringuier had told him in the presence of witnesses, incouding his hatred for the country, where in the presence of witnesses Bringuier rented and raved. Bill said he could produce up to six witnesses on some aspect of this and would ask if he might give me their nemes. He offered to testify if the case goes to court.

I explained the suit, its outcome, its defects and what hapnened last time I was there with Pens. And I said I'd like to take a deposition.

I am to call him when I'm next there and have breakfast.
